The screenshot displays the 'TitleV-B Faculty Toolbox' website. The header includes the site title and a search icon. A blue sidebar on the left contains a navigation menu with the following items: Home, Instructional Software, Videos, Instructional Products, Best Practices, Tutorials, and TitleV-B Documents. A dropdown menu is open for 'Instructional Software', listing Blackboard, Articulate, Prezi, Elluminate, and Camtasia. The main content area features a green 'Best Practices' header, followed by a section titled 'Links to Internet Presentations'. This section lists several articles with green hyperlinks, including 'Introduction to Crafting Questions for On-line Discussions', 'Tsunami' & 'Harvard and M.I.T. Team Up to Offer Courses', 'Millenials', 'What's all the fuss over the flipped classroom?', 'Changing Education Paradigms', and 'Personal Learning Networks'. Each article includes a small icon and the author's name. At the bottom of the page, a Windows taskbar is visible with various application icons.
